Holy Spirit, blazing flame,
Uniting us in Jesus' name;
Tongues of fire, of life, of love —
Gentle ... peaceful, as the dove:
Forging bonds of unity,
Drawing each one closer to thee;
The POWER of UNITY growing strong and true
As you dwell in us and we in you;
One spark — all it takes to kindle a flame —
The fire of His love in the hearts of all men.

Asburians . . . a community of believers drawn by the Holy Spirit of God, loving, sharing, bearing, blending into one body as the purging refining flame melts our barriers, molding our faith into one — a unity of peace, gentle as a dove, powerful as the Spirit of the Almighty Living God.

For we, though many, are one body in Christ our Lord, and individually members one of another. Baptized by one Spirit, into one body, we grow up together in all things in Christ as we study, work and minister together — each separate experience, unique in strength and impact, fitting with every other one in a pattern that takes four years to complete — until we come together in to the unity of our faith and the rich fulness of Christ.

The bread we break together, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? And we who partake together of the one bread are one body, drawn together in our knowledge and fellowship with Him, drawn out from the world that we may grow together as a body, then reach out in the power of unity to draw others to Him ...

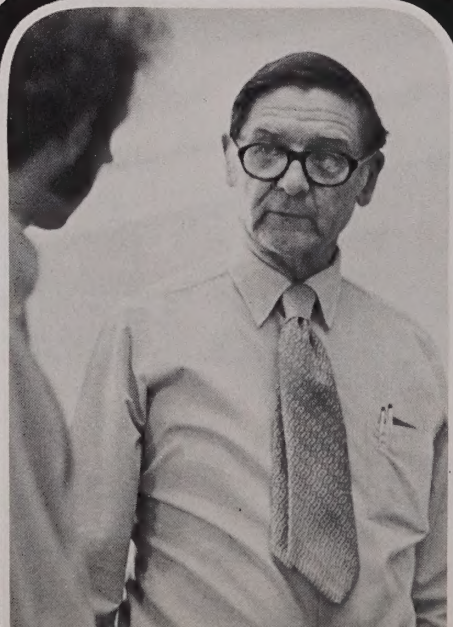

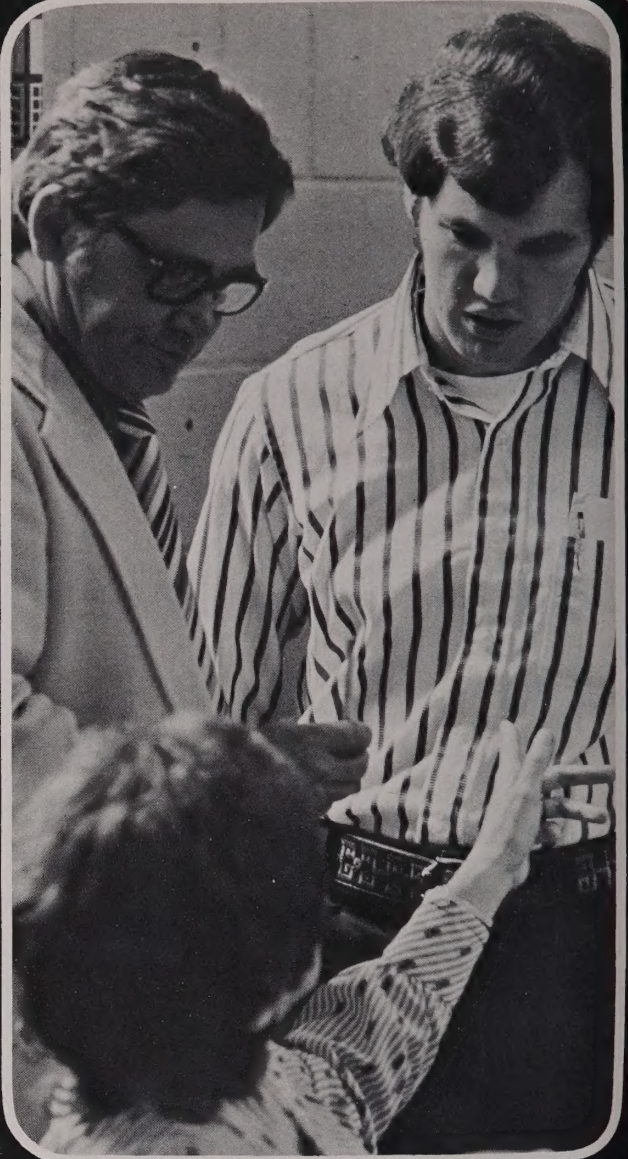

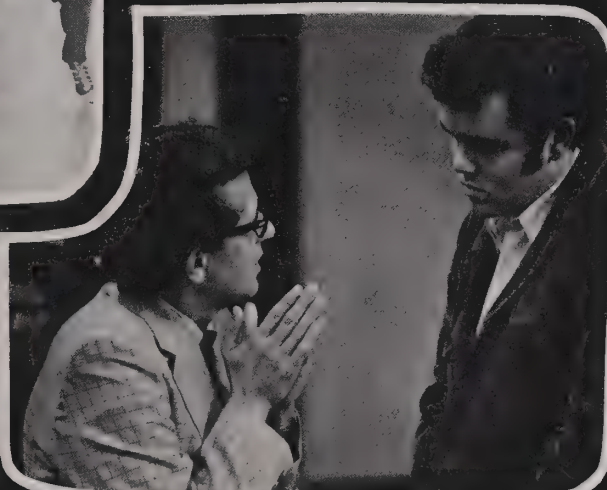

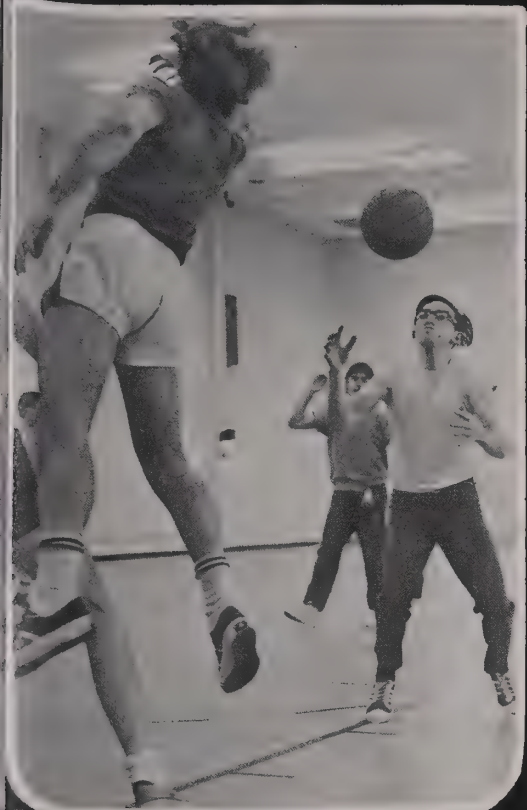

That we may be one as He abides in each of us even as the Father and Son are one and dwell in one another ... that the world may say "Behold, how they love each other" and know that He has sent us, and has loved us with the same love we are to show them ... that they may know that Christ IS ALL and IN ALL.

For it is in Him that we live as one and move as one and have our being.
And we also, though one,
are many—for we must each fill our place, take our responsibility.

... not only reaching out to minister, but reaching in to share, to care for one another, as members every one of each other.

And when we learn to care for each member of the body, and to take our place, then we shall go out,
two by two, 1000 by 1000,
hand in hand to minister,
create, build, mold, care
for others . . .

Everyone is under like an umbrella and lead to someone who is going to lead and even as you move forward you are going to be drawn to you.

There is a lot of things that are not what you see and it's not what you feel. It's what you know.

... and we know that in the center of our lives
there is always a place
we can return to.

How good and pleasant it is when we dwell together in all things as brothers and sisters in the life and unity of His Spirit, in the bond of peace and love.

For there is

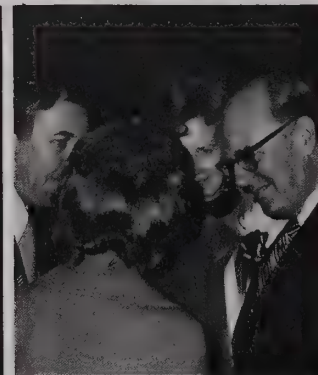

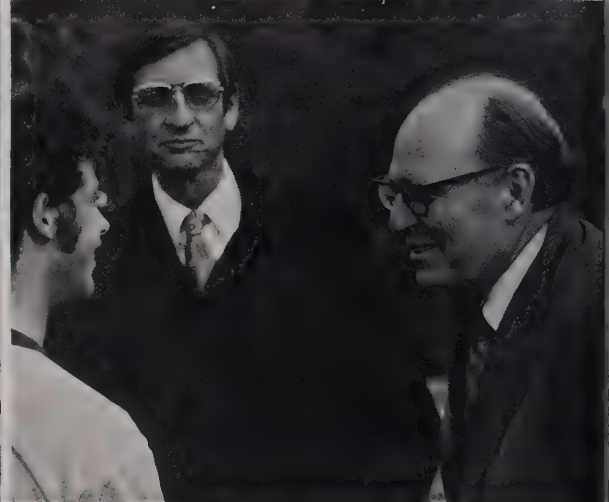

*ONE body,
and ONE spirit,
even as we are called in ONE hope of our calling;*

*ONE Lord,
ONE faith,
ONE baptism,*

ONE God and Father of ALL . . .

... who is above all, and through all, and in you all."
Ephesians 4:4-6

DIRECTION

1

DIRECTION ... The administration of Asbury College, a group often criticized and misunderstood, whose highest purpose is to guide and direct each student in the way of God. DIRECTION ... the type of people pictured here, their lives focused on and guided by the Lord of this universe, called to one of the highest callings and hardest jobs in this world: that of directing this institution, enforcing its principles, guiding its students. DIRECTION ... There is only one way to go the right way: decisions agonized in long hours of prayer, until there comes the assurance that the decision has been made according to His will. DIRECTION ... moving out on the decisions made, in faith that the power of that fellowship and unity with fellow administrators and with students, which comes only through the bond of prayer and of ministry, both within the College community, reaching out to touch each others' lives, and outside the community, each going out to minister in different places and in different ways, but all in the same DIRECTION DIRECTION

DIRECTION DIRECTION

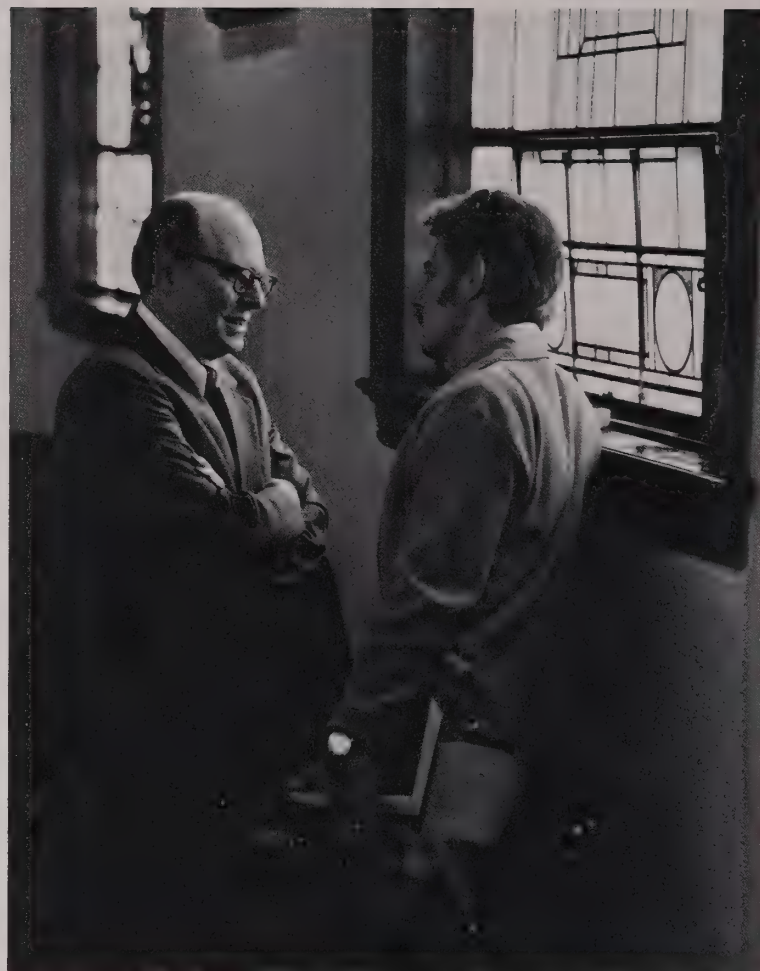

Direction With a View to World-Wide Outreach

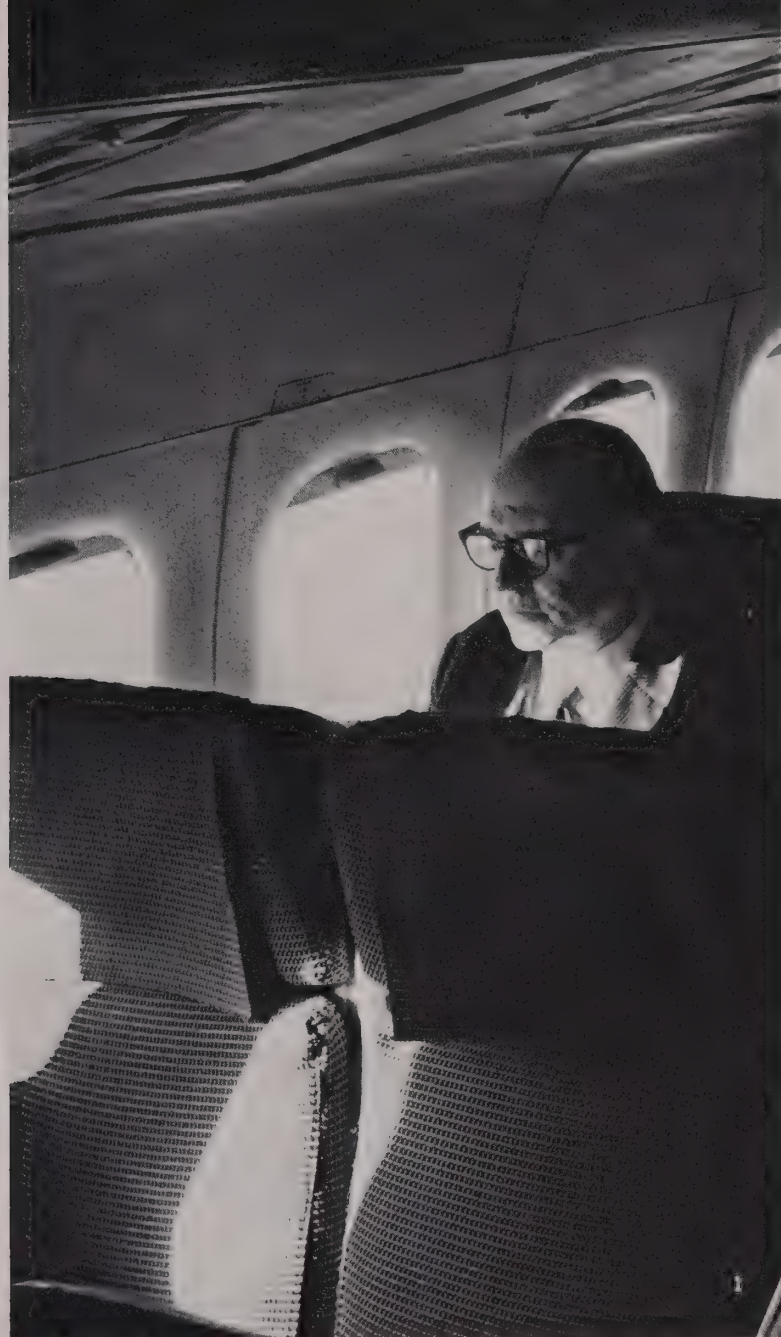

The responsibility of leading Asbury College as her chief administrator has been placed in the hands of Dr. Dennis F. Kinlaw. In his hands lies the responsibility for the academic and spiritual training of over a thousand students each year.

Unlike most college presidents Dr. Kinlaw is not thought of as unreachable by either the students or the faculty of Asbury. He is considered a beloved friend by all those around him. Throughout the year it was our privilege to hear him speak in chapel as often as his busy schedule permitted. His messages were both enlightening and challenging to the Asbury family.

Dr. Kinlaw has earned the respect of all who have come in contact with him for his academic and spiritual accomplishments and most of all for his concern for his responsibilities to this institution, and his genuine love for the students God sees fit in his infinite wisdom to send to Asbury each year. In giving of himself to us Dr. Kinlaw has given us an example that we can follow in living a Christ centered life. He has allowed us to see him as an administrator, as a Christian, and above all, as a friend, sharing with us what Christ has taught him so far in their walk together and how excited he is about going farther with Christ. What a privilege it has been for us to join them and all of us grow together.

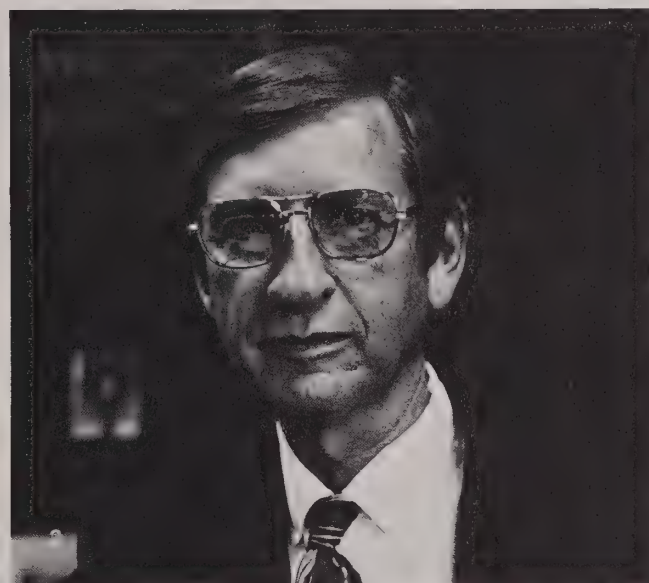

The blessings God has poured on this campus have been many but one of the richest is Dr. Dennis F. Kinlaw, President of Asbury College.

Faculty members are a very important part of the Asbury College community. They have the opportunity to associate with a greater number of students on a more personal level than the administration, and are instrumental in directing many facets of our lives. Not only do they lead and guide us in the way of knowledge; they also help us to apply that knowledge in practical ways to our own Christian lives and philosophies. Despite the long hours of preparation necessary for a professor to communicate effectively in the classroom, they are willing to take time to counsel with students about academic, personal, and spiritual problems. The Asbury College faculty is not just interested in each student as a number or name on the grade sheet, but as an individual, a person; and the unity we share through the common bond of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ brings students and professors together on a very personal basis as members of the "Asbury family."

PARTICIPATION

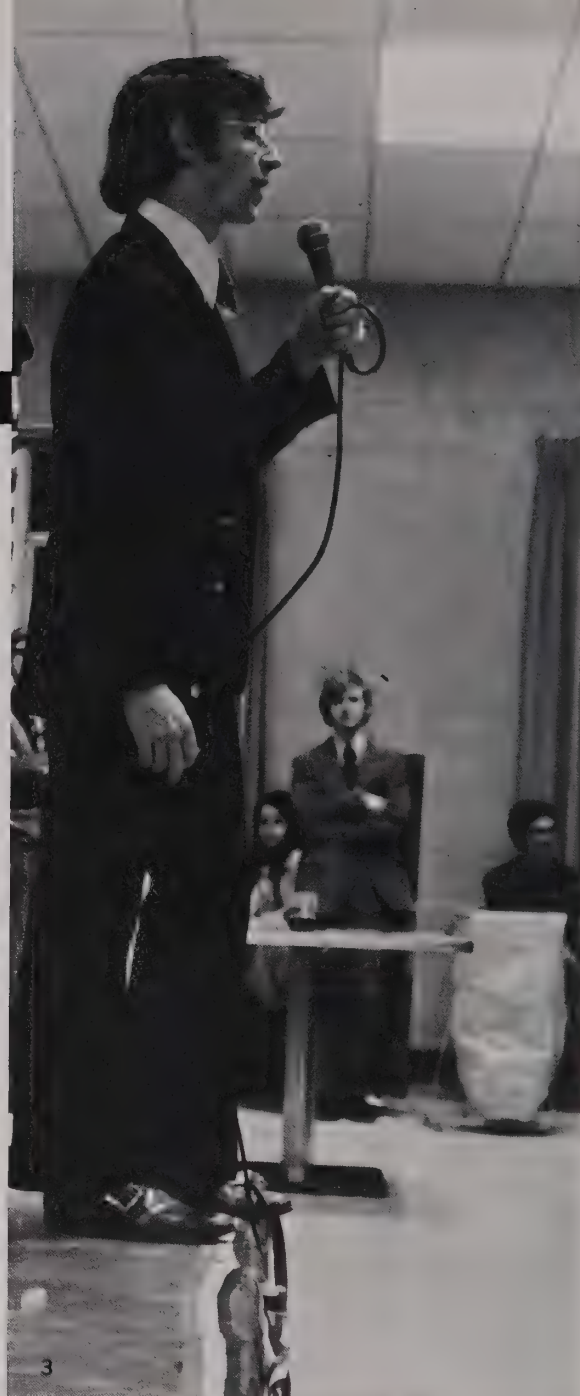

Goal of S.G. Was to Become a Vital Force on Campus

Student government elections for 1973-74 held a lot of excitement and anticipation. Asbury upperclassmen can remember the tension that was in the air when the new student government president was announced that evening in the grill. Eric Wehrli (UPPER RIGHT) asked that night for the student body to unite in support of their student government, and for prayers for the coming year.

The stated overall purpose of the Student Government is to help Asbury College come to grips with student problems and to develop responsible leadership. This year the president, Eric Wehrli, named several major emphases to be stressed by each member of the entire student government. They were: to create social atmosphere with more interaction; to aid upperclassmen in finding out about graduate schools; and to develop student contacts with other colleges. The goal this year for the Student-Faculty Council was to become a more vital force in tackling campus problems; most importantly to make every effort to truly relate to the students, and to work closely with administration and faculty.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

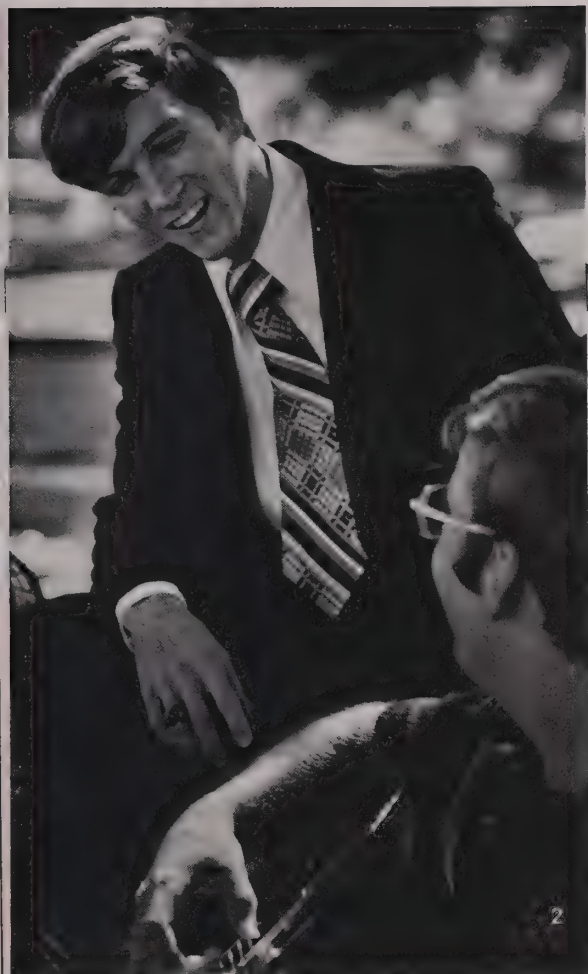

C.I. Supported by Student Government

Community Involvement includes four co-coordinators who have the sole responsibility of recruiting and coordinating student volunteers in four different areas of community service: tutoring; recreation; visitation; and special interests that meet particular community needs. Several of the student volunteers this year were selected to recruit and coordinate groups of students interested in each specific area: tutoring, Marilyn Pieper; visitation, Becky Kennedy; recreation, Patty Snelling, Ed Gore, Mike Noah; and special interest, Rachel Algren and Chester Harris. The goal of Community Involvement was to reach every person in Jessamine County, "sharing the love of Christ through practical, down-to-earth services."

The coordinators are: STANDING: Rick Steiner, general director; Bill Townsend, Becky Kennedy, Sherry Eye, Gary Fletcher, Coleen Shaffner; Kneeling: Neil McKinnie, Linda Myers. 2. Bill Townsend working outside with the kids in Nicholasville. 3. Regina Harkness tutoring in Nicholasville.

S.G. Sets Pace of Unity for Organizations in 1973-74

"If Student Government works, then the rest of the campus works." Asbury Student Government is the pace-setting organization of the campus, and this year it set an example of unity for the college. Organizations cannot function unless they work together, and, realizing this, student government has tried during the 1973-74 year to promote unity on the campus. As a part of its effort, Student Government was in full support of Community Involvement in hopes that participation within the area surrounding the college would create a sense of unity with the community.

Prayer — Hard Work Unified the Staff

The initial work on the 1974 Asburian began even before the academic year was underway when Glenn Spencer and Susan Matthews were elected as editor and assistant editor. They searched for a theme that would best exemplify each individual as well as the classes and college as one unit. After much thought and prayer they found that no words could better represent the 1974 year than "The Power of Unity." It is the staff's hope that this "power of unity" will continue to draw the Asbury family together with prayers and memories for years to come.

Reorganization Reflects Move Toward Total Unified Involvement

A newspaper is only effective if it reaches and meets the needs and wants of its readers. The Asbury Collegian is of the students, by the students, and for the students of Asbury College. Like so many other things in life, putting together a newspaper is a team effort with each team member performing a vital function. The '74 staff strove for a quality publication, keeping in mind at all times Colossians 3:23: "Whatever you do, put your whole heart and soul into it as into work done for the Lord, and not merely for man . . ."

Our Nation in Conflict

The Middle East, Impeachment, Watergate, Resignations—what are the implications behind these issues and where do we as Christians stand? We, as United States citizens are facing serious domestic and foreign crises that can and will affect our everyday lives. It is our duty as Christians and citizens of the United States to become aware and informed on these salient issues. Take the time to read the daily newspaper in the library or some of the varied news magazines.

As students it is extremely difficult for us to become actively involved in the government, but it is a biblical exhortation to pray for those in authority over us and intelligent prayer and supplication requires an understanding and knowledge of the pertinent issues facing our nation.

Unrest pervades the United States and conflict abounds even on a Christian campus. Vital issues concern our leaders who are unable to concur on many major decisions. Christ has given us the gift of unity and accord if only we will accept it. Unified prayer presents the only avenue we as students can travel.

Republican or Democrat, Nixon supporter or not, our nation desperately needs our concerted prayers. If this campus could become concerned and mobilized, mighty things can happen. God waits for us to pray before He intervenes. I challenge the entire student body to become informed on the world situation and to unitedly pray for our nation!

G. M.

"I'D SOONER PRAY FOR GOD'S MERCY THAN HIS JUSTICE ON MY FRIENDS, MY ENEMIES, AND MYSELF." — C.S. LEWIS "... AND HE DIED FOR ALL."

Wilmore People Series to Come

Editor's Note: The Collegian is interested in relationships between the town and college students. In the next few issues we will explore community attitudes toward the College.

In the next few editions of the Collegian we will be printing a feature series on the people of Wilmore and their attitudes toward Asbury. Do they feel that we are really living our Christianity in the community or do we neglect our responsibility, as they see it, off-campus?

We will be questioning all factions of the community: rich, poor, old, young, black, white, and even Methodist and non-Methodist, all in order to gain a better view into our home-away-from-home, and to perhaps see some real ways in which to express our Christian love. We'll find out how they feel, but it will be up to all of us to act

SINGING AMBASSADORS

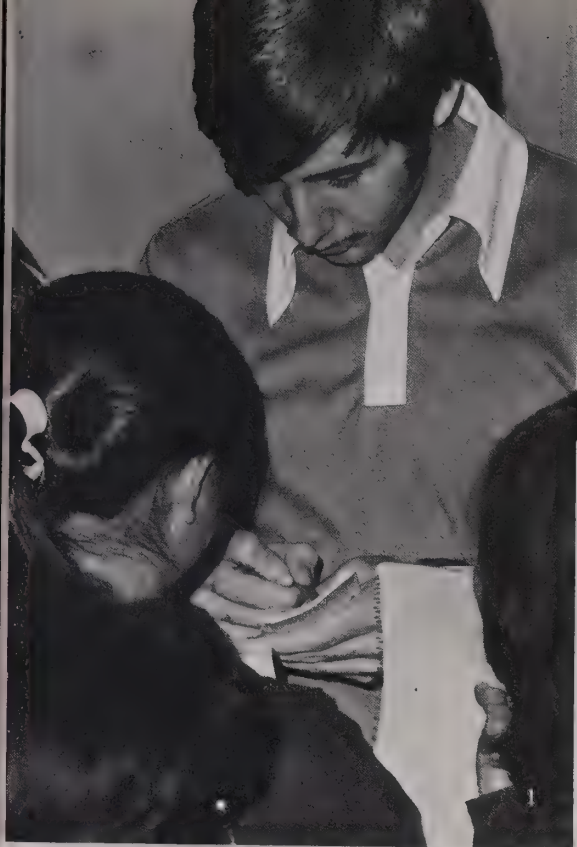

Musical Expertise in Christian Witness

"We try to be at our musical best to gain a means to an end through everything from Bach to rock, that end being the privilege to represent Christ and to give witness of Him in all we do." Professor Jack Rains.

The Singing Ambassadors, under the direction of Professor Jack Rains, have the unique opportunity of sharing their love of Christ through song all over the world.

Leaving June 1st, the Singing Ambassadors headed for the sunny skies of South America. Their tour included two weeks in Brazil, one week in Equador and two weeks in Colombia. Their ministry in Brazil centered around the college campus. Because of the unrest and rugged student life, the singers performed right in midst of student's activity. Their ministry consisted not only in singing, but also in personal witness on an individual basis. The Ambassadors received a warm response in all the South American countries. During the school year, the Ambassadors perform concerts on campus plus week end tours of concerts in schools and church services.

MEN'S GLEE

Students Participate in Glee Clubs and Brass Ensemble

Students that have a particular interest in and talent for singing are encouraged to participate in the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs.

Women's Glee, under the direction of Professor Robert Howard, went south for spring tour this year accompanied by the college Brass Ensemble. The two musical groups together performed in a variety of places including churches and schools.

Men's Glee is directed by Professor William Gould. The men had a fall retreat this year for the purposes of fellowshiping together and relaxed recreation. The North Carolina area was the destination for the "best sounding yet" Men's Glee as they toured during spring break performing fifteen new songs for a variety of appreciative audiences.

MUSIC CLUB

Students Develop A Deeper Appreciation for Music

There are two campus organizations in which students with interest in music may participate. The college Music Club exists in order to bring together students who are interested in music and to develop and expand appreciation for the finer principles of music. Under the direction of Miss Dorothy Spalding, the Music Club also provides opportunities for developing leadership, creativity, and self-confidence.

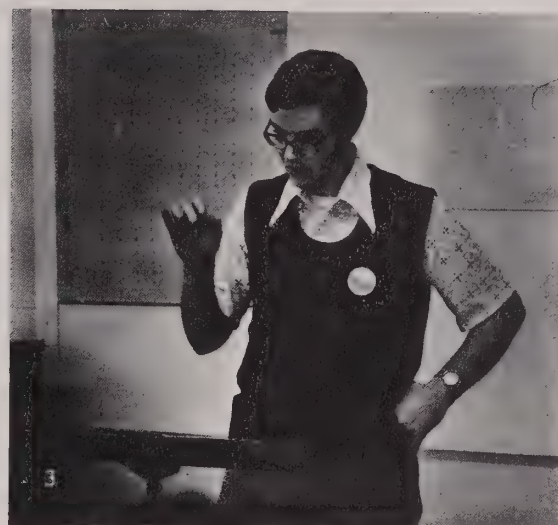

The American Guild of Organists meets to further professional organ and choral music in America. Mr. Gerard Faber is the director of the Asbury Organ Guild and there are student chapters at colleges across the country. Activities of the Organ Guild here on campus include regular meetings, attendance at recitals, field trips to see pipe organs, and social events.

Clubs Emphasize Unity for Fellowship

Fellowship is a very important part of life at Asbury, and several organizations have been established with the sole purpose of providing Christian fellowship. Two such organizations are the Foreign Student Fellowship and the Suzanna's. The FSF is a benefit to all in that it sheds light on cultures and ways of life we never see or experience except through interaction with the foreign students of Asbury. The officers were: Bobby Kambaramie, Pres.; Angela Barriga, Vice-Pres.; Ling Mei Lim, Sec.; Adelina Parra, Tres.; and Steve Sibili, Chaplain. The FSF faculty representative was Dr. Eddy. The Suzanna's, which also provide fellowship and spiritual uplifting, is an active organization of the student wives.

We Join Together in an Effort to Meet the Needs of Others

Out of a commitment to Christ comes a demand for service. Two organizations which represent this commitment and service are the Salvation Army Student Fellowship and Women in Service for Christ. SASF activities ranged from participating in conventions in different states to giving band performances on campus and in parades. The main activity of WSC was to sponsor visitation on Sunday afternoons to Cardinal Hill Hospital for handicapped children, Julian Marks Home, and an orphanage. Every Friday evening WSC met for a time of fellowship, inviting special speakers to share, and for prayer for urgent prayer concerns.

FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

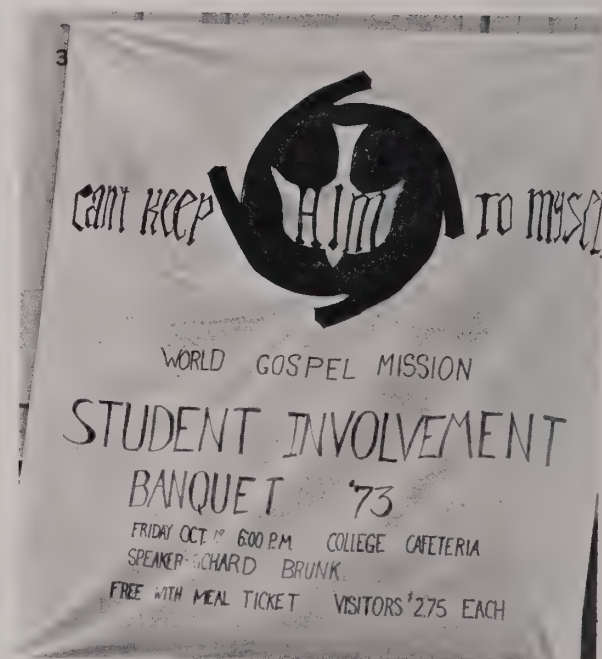

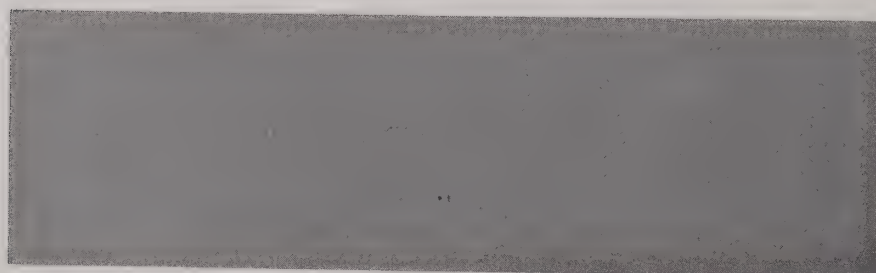

Student Involvement Has a Big Night With Richard Brunk

Student Involvement is a challenge to be a disciple of Jesus Christ NOW! S.I. confronts the apathy of students towards missionaries by an active support of missions. Information about missions, vocational counseling, and guidance in preparation to fulfill the Great Commission are their basic essentials for existence on Asbury's campus. Supportive value to the missions is handled through prayer and financial support.

Student Involvement officers are: Pres., Gene Parr; V.P., George Champion; Rec. Sec., Sharon Runyon; Treas., Jeannie Corbitt; Cor. Sec., Esther Cann; Publicity, Kathy Patat and Albert Weinerman; Prayer Chairman, Gus Lavin; Music Chairman, Lew Sharpless; and Look-out Chairman, Mary Ann Toussaint.

Missionary Groups Create Responsibility

Foreign Missions Fellowship and OMS Outreach make every student aware of his responsibility to God's plan for world wide evangelism. Missionary speakers inform Asbury students of world needs and God's work in our world. They are a catalyst for action and provide an opportunity for students to minister now through prayer and participation in summer missions.

FMF officers are: Pres., Ken Deale; V. Pres., Lois Shingledecker; V. Pres. Prayer, Bruce Babcock; Sec., Linda Blackburn; Treas., Randy Spacht; and Publicity & Lit., Barb Stucky.

Charity Makes an Asbury Professional

Through Ministerial Association, preparation is made for prospective ministers to perform immediate and superior service in each respective branch of ministry with distinct emphasis on the promotion of holy living, Christian fellowship, and labors of love. Outreach (visitation and witnessing at area hospitals and jails) is the most realistic approach to the pastoral duties of every minister. CEA is a resource center for potential non-professional and professional Christian educators. It is an edification of high standards for each potential educator through leadership training, reviewing contemporary trends in CE, and stimulation of Christian fellowship among fellow members. Their perspective is the present and future tense of acknowledge and tackle new and helpful insights to Christian education. What is better for Asbury education majors than SNEA? Nothing. SNEA is the epitome of educational associations for excellent guidance and instruction. On Asbury's grounds it has an even higher standard — that of integrating faith with a good education for the ultimate goal of excellent Christian teachers.

KENYON SCIENCE CLUB SIGMA ZETA

Striving to Combine Mind With Spirit

Alpha Zeta, the local chapter of the national honorary science society, Sigma Zeta, requires that members show outstanding academic achievement, and, in addition, most have leadership positions on campus.

Kenyon Science Club integrates science with faith in scientific and spiritual programs and goals. It proposes to broaden and enlighten members socially and culturally, and serves as an information source for students and faculty concerning opportunities, responsibilities, needs, and activities of the scientifically minded. They also try to include non-science people in their scope of interests and needs.

The Math Club provides a means by which students may gain valuable information in the field of mathematics that class time does not always allow. They have programs which provide this information, help develop an appreciation for the beauty and power of mathematics due to its demands for logical and rigorous thought processes, and keep students up to date with happenings in the field of mathematics.

PE Club, WRA, and Eagles Varsity Club Participate in Sports

Christian fellowship amid recreation, physical development, and sports is the goal of these three campus organizations. Physical activity is inspired as a form of fellowship, a release of tensions, relaxation, and competition in an orderly fashion. Idealistically it upholds physical, intellectual, and spiritual well-being. Realistically it fosters good sportsmanship, promotes school spirit, provides physical well-being and a practical application of Christianity.

Students with special interests in flying and chess join with others of like interests in the Asbury Missionary Aviation Fellowship and the Chess Club. The main goal of the Aviation Club is to turn out missionary pilots from Asbury. Under their organizer John Stewart, the club made missionary trips to the Kentucky Mountains with food and clothing. Chess Club's advisers were Prof. Brestel and Mr. McIlvaine. Lew Wilder was the president of Chess Club which met on Saturday afternoons for fellowship through playing chess.

Art Guild Members Broaden Their Scope With Field Trips

The Art Guild's general purpose is to promote fellowship, learning, and growth in art for Christ's glory. Artistic insight is gained by visiting museums, talking about art in meetings, and most importantly in creating. The Guild has a fast prayer meeting every Tuesday at noon in an attempt to keep themselves open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit by building the organization on the firm rock of prayer. French and Spanish students have the unique opportunity to participate in conversation over meals at "La Table Francaise" and "La Tertulia." Each table met once a week for students to get practical experience in conversation.

DISTINCTION

FRESHMAN WEEK

As the upperclassmen arrived back on campus, it was evident to all that there was something new in our midst. The added element was the Viking Class of 1977. For many of the freshmen it was their first time living away from home, and for all it was their first taste of a seemingly confusing and sometimes lonely college life.

... but they weren't lonely very long ...

The first week the new Vikings were kept busy adjusting to new surroundings, new friends, a roommate, and college life-style, taking tests, going to meetings and receptions, deciding what teachers to take and how to understand the schedule sheet. Orientation concluded with the long lines, crowds, and confusion of registration, and the Vikings officially became a part of their first college classes and of the Asbury college family.

FALL REVIVAL

The very popular and talented Dr. Sam Kamalesan was the evangelist for the Fall Revival, October 7-14. Through his challenging messages and beautiful singing voice Dr. Sam helped make the week a real experience for many of our students. Dr. Kamalesan said that he felt the student body was hungering for deeper knowledge and committal to Christ. Since his last visit to the campus in the fall of 1970 Dr. Sam said he could see the effect of the power of unity on the campus as each student sought to bind themselves.

Patriot Class

The spiritual growth of each member of the Asbury family is partly dependent on the various prayer meetings held during the school year. Each Wednesday evening the Spiritual Life Committee sponsored an all-college prayer meeting and also a fast prayer meeting during the noon meal on Thursday. Class prayer meetings were held frequently, along with class cabinets gathering together to pray for God's guidance in leading their class. Organizations such as the Art Guild prayed for God's guidance through every phase of their work. Dorm and floor prayer meetings unified their residents into a family with a each striving to be the best neighbor God would have each individual to be. Not all prayer meetings were previously planned or announced. Often a group of students would just gather together for a time of fellowship and they would find themselves deep in prayer. A nation was founded nearly 200 years ago because a few faithful people prayed for her. If a few can build a nation then we see just how powerful a prayer can be when the Asbury family unites to lift a burden before God.

With an air of excitement and patriotism in their hearts the alumni and parents joined with the student body to celebrate Homecoming 1973 under the theme of "Let Freedom Ring". The entire weekend was in honor of the Patriot (Senior) Class and began with the coronation of senior Mary Snyder as the 1973 Homecoming Queen. The Homecoming Court consisted of seniors Katy Kinlaw, Sylvia Coker, and Cheryl Gwyn. The representatives of the Junior Class were Rachel Algren, Tammy Phillips, and Bobbi Spicer. The founding of America and her early settlers were spotlighted by the parade. Such institutions as the Liberty Bell and Betsy Ross's flag were featured along with such famous men as George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson, Paul Revere and others were portrayed. The weekend was an exciting adventure for all who attended, and afforded friends and families the chance to be united once again.

The arrival of over two hundred high school seniors on the Asbury campus November 23 marked the opening of the third annual Presidents Conference. The purpose of President's Conference is to introduce prospective students to the Asbury campus and show them specifically what Asbury has to offer. As the visitors attended classes, chapel, and seminars, and were entertained by Dave Boyer in concert, the unique Christ-centered qualities of the Asbury campus were communicated to them. Spiritual life and growth were stressed through the messages of Jim Daniels, National Blind Golfing Champion, and Norm Palmer, former golf pro for President Eisenhower. The high school seniors became acquainted with Asbury students while living with them in dorms for the weekend, and students and faculty of the college worked hard to present Asbury to the visitors through a variety show, special dinner, and sports exhibition. Those who came to visit the campus came seeking a college to attend and most left planning to return — with Christ in their hearts.

Winter Revival

Through the ministry of Dr. Leonard Ravenhill during Winter Revival. January 5-13, many of our students were deeply challenged to search their souls and see exactly what part God had in their lives. It was evident that God had spoken to each present through the power and force of Dr. Ravenhill's messages. God's extension of the services for two more days allowed many students the privilege of finding themselves and in so doing to find God.

Winding Up War, Working Toward Peace

turned out to be the costliest and most dangerous engagement in 25 years of Middle East tension, and its fearful consequences were still not fully calculated. Last week the Yom Kippur War (as Israelis call it) threatened to involve not only Israelis and Arabs, but Russian and Americans as well, in a bewildering and exhaustive kaleidoscope of crisis. The week began with a seemingly firm play of East-West détente: a joint Moscow-Washington resolution introduced in the United Nations that called for a stop to the fighting and the commencement of peace negotiations. But within a week, the big powers had seemingly taken a step toward the brink of nuclear confrontation: the Russians made moves toward unilateral action in the Middle East zone, and the U.S. responded with worldwide military mobilization. By the week's end, however, the two superpowers were once again cooperating in truth.

Could the President's Tapes Be Altered?

When President Nixon agreed to hand over the Watergate tapes, a consuming question in Washington has been whether the tapes can be altered without detection. The answer is a qualified yes. The man with enough time and with access to the original tape recorder could, in the opinion of audio experts, make substantial changes that would be undetectable.

For a Life-Size Presidency

The presidency, said Minnesota Senator Walter F. Mondale last week, has become "larger than life and larger than the law." In a direct challenge to President Nixon's view, Mondale insisted in a major Senate speech that the people "want desperately to uncover the lessons of Watergate."

Immediate governmental reforms, he went on, would help considerably. But at the heart of the offenses issuing from Watergate, Mondale declared, is the disproportionately large role the presidency has come to play in all the affairs of the nation.

A TIME TO UNITE What Jesus is saying to my heart is that He will have unity in His body that cuts across all lines, and I have the very clear impression that we will unite willingly in love, or be united under hardship.

Christians from many different groups are beginning to join together in prayer and fellowship over problems like Watergate. It is time for each of us to prayerfully find out what the Lord is doing in our lives individually, and as a nation.

Even for a nation surfeited with surprise and sensation, the week's events brought multiple shocks:

► A Vice President who had piously proclaimed the need for stiff morality and stern judges was revealed as a grafter; he abruptly resigned in deserved disgrace, copping a plea to stay out of jail. Within 56 hours the President nominated House Republican Leader Gerald Ford to replace Spiro T. Agnew. In choosing the amiable House workhorse, Nixon for once did the easy and popular thing.

► A federal appeals court ruled in often biting language that the President must yield up his Watergate tapes, serving clear notice that a serious threat to Richard Nixon's own political survival still looms.

► The full gravity of the war in the Middle East, with its dangerous possibility of enmeshing the superpowers, became all too apparent.

However distant and as yet only indirectly involving the U.S., the war between Israel and its Arab neighbors could hold greater peril for Americans

Seven Tumultuous Days

In a year surfeited with surprise, in a month of successive shocks, it was by any reckoning the most tumultuous week of modern U.S. political history. Richard Nixon's survival as President was in grave doubt, and—by Nixon's account—so was the peace of the world for a few tense hours. The foreign crisis was resolved, but the unmaking of the presidency of Richard Nixon gathered such momentum as to almost ensure even more crises in the days ahead.

conference, page 23). Perspiring and barely containing his anger at times, Nixon insisted that "the tougher it gets, the cooler I get." The recent scandal-inspired shocks that have so jolted the nation "will not affect me and my doing my job," he said. He had been through so much controversy ("it has been my lot") that "when I have to face an international crisis, I've got what it takes." He vowed that "as long as I can carry out that kind of responsibility, I'm going to

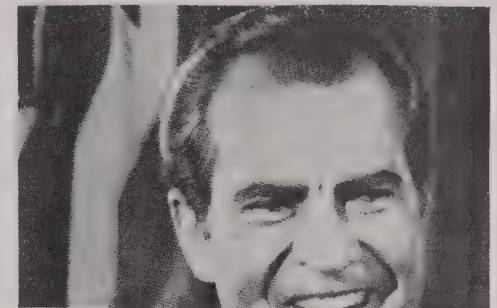

ENERGY

One of those at home was House Minority Leader Gerald Rudolph Ford, 60, keeping his cool in his suburban Virginia home with a 20-minute swim. He had just climbed out of the pool, the dinner steaks were on the burner, when the telephone rang. It was the President. Puckishly, almost as though he were a secretary, he said: "Jerry, Al Haig has a message for you." The White House chief of staff came on the line and said: "I've got good news for you. The President wants you to be Vice President."

Presidential Election '74?

Among the unique and troubling aspects of the nation's political crisis is that President Nixon's impeachment now would place in the White House for three long years a man who had not been elected to national office. Since the resignation of former Vice President Spiro Agnew three weeks ago, there have been two

In mid-fall, the energy crisis burst upon the U.S. with the emotional impact of a modern-day handwriting on the wall. After a long Belshazzar's feast of energy gluttony, it seemed, Americans were being called to a bitter reckoning. The social event of each quarter centered around Artist Series, which afforded each of us a chance to put on our formal attire and attend an evening of cultured entertainment in Hughes Memorial Auditorium. The programs varied each quarter from a trombonist, to a chamber orchestra to a pianist with his own ensemble. Artist Series provided each of us with an opportunity to broaden our appreciation for the performing arts. Many times our guest artists were well known to each of us while other times the fame of the performer was not yet established. For the exposure to such excellent talent we were all deeply grateful.

The annual Freshman Talent Show was performed by the Viking Class Saturday, February 16, in Hughes. The theme for the show was "Don't Give Up the Ship", and was best summed up by this quote from the Master of Ceremonies, Captain Nathan Mowery, "Each day we live has its own special meaning. We realize that it's the people we associate with that give the meaning to the day. With each sunrise there must come a sunset that brings memories of love, joy, tears, heart breaking death, and the people we shared them with."

The varied talents of the class were evident through vocal and instrumental solos as well as through dramatic interpretations and baton twirling. The sailors on board the "ship" showed that they loved their children as everyone sat patiently while a little girl did her best to recite a poem called, "The Ship".

The mood of the show was not merely that of humorous entertainment but also moments of serious appreciation for those around us who give life its meaning.

The Viking Class of 1977 and their directors showed all of us present that they truly deserve their name and reputation as courageous sailors (who were not beyond having an evening of good entertainment aboard a Viking Ship!).

Missionary Conference

The annual Missionary Conference, sponsored by Foreign Missions Fellowship, was held on January 23-26, 1974. Each student was challenged with the idea of missions and the possibility of their active involvement on the mission field. Through lectures in Hughes Auditorium, missionaries sharing in classes, and individual appointments with the representatives from various mission boards, the students were able to learn where their talents could be used, as well as find out directly from the missionaries what the life of missionary service is like. Each of the mission boards represented set up an exciting and unique display in the cafeteria to acquaint students with what each board had to offer. Missionary Conference is especially important to the Asbury College community as a means of expanding our missionary vision, encouraging support for missions, and stimulating students to investigate the possibilities and opportunities of a life of missionary service.

William B. Coker

Holiness Conference

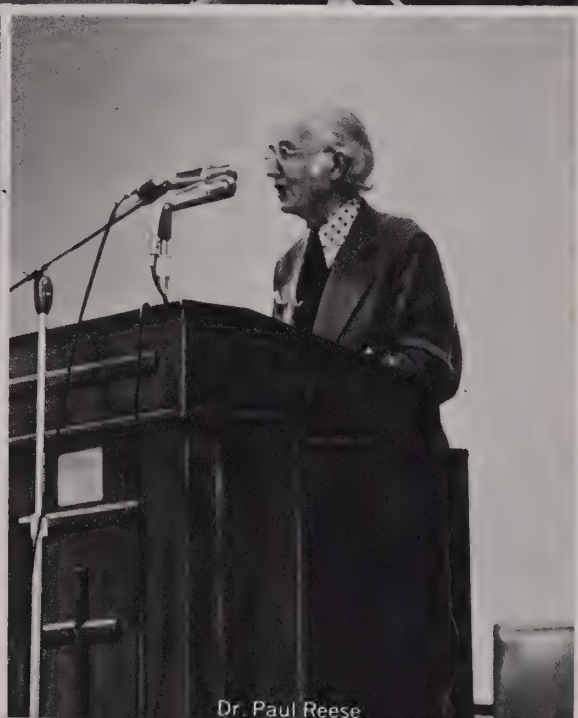

Dr. William B. Coker was the speaker for the fourth annual Holiness Conference, April 2-4. The emphasis of this year's conference was to present the realities of Holy Living. Dr. Coker challenged each of us with the Biblical teachings on Holiness. The Greek word Hagiazō, which means to make pure, best showed the purpose of Holiness Conference for it is only as we become pure in Christ that we are able to attain Holiness. The selection of Dr. Coker as the speaker was received very favorably by faculty and students alike because of the in depth knowledge and scholarly as well as personal understanding that he has of many facets of the Christian life.

The annual Ministers Conference was sponsored by Asbury Theological Seminary February 5-7. Dr. Paul Rees and Bishop Mack B. Stokes challenged the ministers and all those assembled with their stirring messages and gave everyone a renewed personal spiritual experience with the greater encouragement and strength for the tasks of the ministry in the local church. The conference was a rewarding and worthwhile experience, both personally and professionally. This year's theme was, "The Person and the Work of the Holy Spirit". The great fellowship with members of the faculties and students of both institutions was another enriching part of the conference.

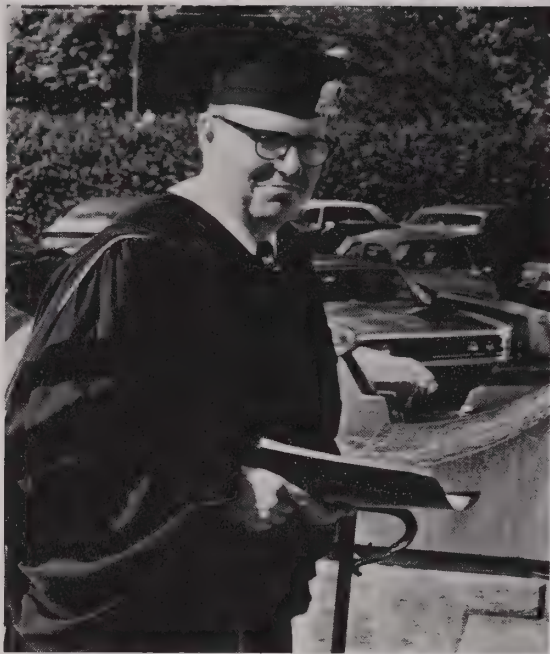

Ministers Conference

Dr. Paul Rees

For the entire four years of our college career, each of us looked forward to graduation day. When it finally arrived it was with mixed emotions that we put on our caps and gowns and went forward to receive our diplomas. Memories of Freshman Week, "That Was the Year That Was," "Natural High," "Ronnie in Wonderland," "Hello Dolly," and most of all, the friends we made through the years, whirled through our minds alongside feelings of gratitude for the family and friends who had helped us financially, the professors and administrators who gave us their best, and for those faithful ones who prayed us through these years. It was only with God's love and much hard work that we made it to that day, and it is in the assurance of His love and guidance, and with much anticipation that we look always forward.

Bits and pieces
Bits and pieces

People. People important to you, people unimportant to you cross your life, touch it with love and carelessness and move on. There are people who leave you and you breathe a sigh of relief and wonder why you ever came into contact with them. There are people who leave you and you breathe a sigh of remorse and wonder why they had to go away and leave such a gaping hole. Children leave parents; friends leave friends. Acquaintances move on. People change homes. People grow apart. Enemies hate and move on. Friends love and move on. You think on the many who have moved into your hazy memory. You look on those present and wonder.

believe in God's master plan in lives. He moves people in and out of each other's lives, and each leaves his mark on the other. You find you are made up of bits and pieces of all who ever touched your life, and you are more because of it, and you would be less if they had not touched you. Pray God that you accept the bits and pieces in humility and wonder, and never question, and never regret.

And that's it. Four short years — joy, laughter, frustration, and learning — filled years of higher education. All these were ours to take, to use and to make the most of them. Now it's over — the college years are past. Some will go on to graduate school, some will teach, go to med school, seminary, the armed service, the mission field, a profession. This is really only the end of a short segment of our lives. The larger and most productive part of our lives is yet to come. Four years as compared to forty seems insignificant, but psychologists, sociologists, and Dr. Kinlaw tell us that what we have done, the styles and habits we have established, the motivation we have adapted will be the determining factors for these subsequent years. As we reflect on those many months spent not only in academic endeavor but also in mental and spiritual growth and maturation, we will either find ourselves filled with excitement, gratitude, and a sense of accomplishment while looking forward to the future, or we will be filled with a desperate fear and the hopelessness of having let these precious, valuable years slip so quickly and irretrievably through our hands, and we may find ourselves pitifully unprepared for the responsibilities at hand. Our earnest prayer is that each individual of our Patriot Class will be able to identify with the former category of growing, maturing, and vitally responsible men and women totally committed to the love and infinite concern typified and taught by the person of Jesus Christ. As we continue to learn and communicate His love, realizing that he is our firm foundation, the future, no matter how uncertain or undetermined, can be filled with nothing else but excitement, challenge, and the laughter and peace of God. "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but a spirit of power and love and a sound mind." ... and with that, we must move to new horizons.

THE PREPARATION

The Crowd Is More Than Just a "Sea of Faces."

THE FIGHT

THE VICTORY

This year's season was marked by numerous injuries to key players and many frustrating and exciting moments as the Eagles put together a record of 6 wins, 4 losses and 2 ties.

The Eagles relied heavily on their adopted scripture verse Isaiah 40:31 to guide and inspire them throughout the season.

The fact that Asbury successfully defended its NAIA District 24 Championship against Bryan College of Tennessee after pulling together 3 straight wins was heartening and showed what the Eagle players were made of.

CROSS COUNTRY

Pace-Setters Achieve Respect of Both College and Opponents

Asbury's recent venture into intercollegiate Cross-Country has been a successful one for the 1973 season. The season started with 6 A.M. practices during Freshman Week. Through sheer determination and willingness to work, Asbury's disciplined runners conquered many goals during the season. Losing to only one school the entire season and winning the biggest meet on the schedule (Centre Invitational) are some of the highlights of the 1973 season. The nine men on the team demonstrated their determination to "pay the price" by collectively as a team running over 2,000 miles during the season. Asbury also had the honor of placing two of her runners in the N.A.I.A. District meet in Tennessee. The true success of the season was the devotion of each team member to serve Christ through athletics. Some of the finest moments of the season were during the weekly team devotions during the noon hour. Truly there was a purpose in the team's success as I Cor. 9:26 was claimed: "So I run straight to the goal with purpose in every step."

Energetic Women Add Interest to Intercollegiate Sports

Increasing popularity in the game of tennis, and the available skills of Asbury women students started competitive women's tennis at Asbury. Competition in tennis throughout Kentucky occurs each fall. The team played six matches and participated in a small college tournament this year. Tennis provided not only competition for the women but also a very real opportunity for sharing the love of Jesus Christ with teams from other schools.

BASKET ALL

Without the Support of the Fans Our Work Would All Be in Vain

1. The huge Patriot American flag was used to begin the 1974 season. 2. Class spirit manifested itself in many ways. 3. Ron Brown is just a little too late to prevent Willie Beasley from taking a shot at the basket. 4. Neither team will reach a compromise on who gets the ball. 5. What better way to enter the court than through a Panther's Paw? 7. Everyone loves a band and Asburians are no exception.

BASKET ALL

1. All eyes are turned toward the ball as it arches its way toward the basket. 2. The Panthers' team gives each other a victory hug after just winning a very close game against the Patriots. 3. The Panther Cheerleaders come in all sizes and shapes. 4. Ed Gore looks for a second before passing the ball to a teammate.

The Eagles Fly Down the Track Toward Discipline of Mind and Body

Competition ... Pressure on pressure, mounting each time the trackman walks once more onto the field ... Competition ... against his opponents, against himself, as he thinks about not only that person line up beside him, but that best time, best jump, best throw.

The long hours of physical and mental preparation for the event, hours of concentration on nothing but those few seconds when with all his energies he will drive toward that one goal pay off, because in winning or losing, he knows he has given his all. This is the true athlete — the Asbury athlete.

1. Frank looks determined to reach higher goals. 2. In running a medley team effort is important and Rick Crooks and Jeff Ford have worked hard to perfect a smooth hand-off. 3. In order to hurl the discus, Rod must become like a coiled spring ready to unwind in a brief moment.

College Racketeers Gain Control of Courts

When the Asbury College Men's Tennis team went intercollegiate three years ago, the men were called upon to represent the college and what it stood for to their opponents. They have proven themselves quite capable on the courts and in their witness, and have become increasingly effective with each added year. This year's team, strengthened by five freshmen players, practiced continually, not just in the spring, but almost any time of the year and in all kinds of weather — and is shown as they demonstrated their expertise on the courts.

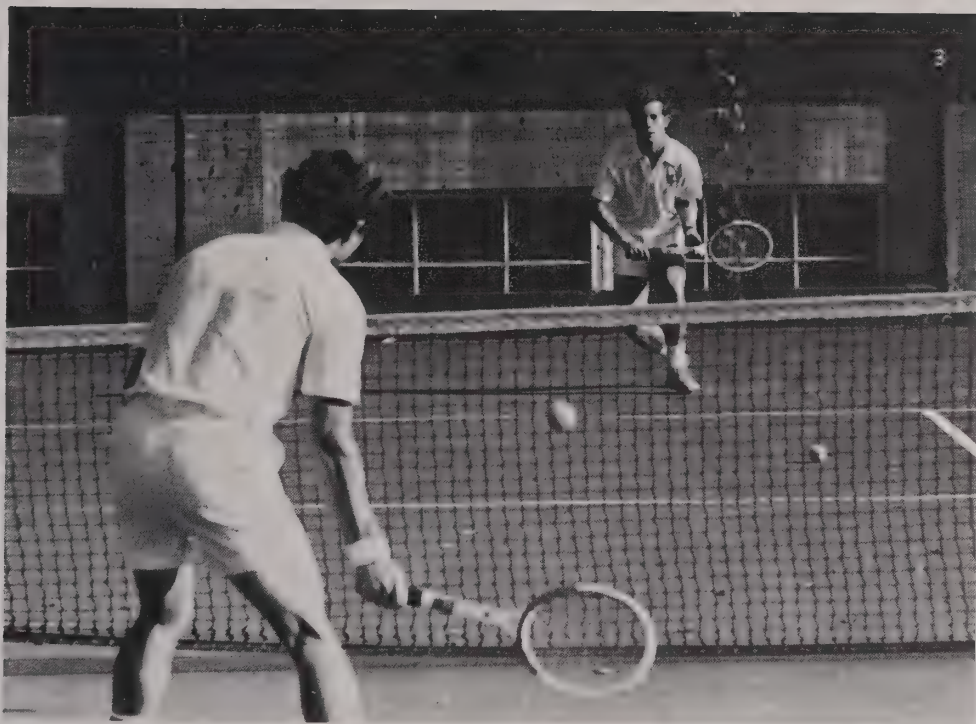

1. "Hey you guys, two against one — that's not fair!" 2. Tom Mowry and Joey Brockington prove that two rackets are better than one. 3. A couple more swings like that, Carl, and you might even end up in the winner's circle.

4. Dave Sommers fires that ball back across the net. 5. "Oh, for some comfortable benches to sit on!"

1. Joey Brockington shows he's nobody's fool even if he can't find the ball! 2. The crowd sits in awe of our Eagles as they usher their opponents to defeat. 3. The Gatorade Kids, Tom Mowrey and Dave Sommers, are primed for action. 4. Bob Moon is not going to miss this shot!

PATRIOTS

The Senior Class this year chose Mike Powers as Mr. Patriot for the 1973-1974 academic year. He has served as Men's Chaplain his junior year and has been a very active member of the Patriot Basketball team since his Freshmen year.

A genuine smile and a happy nature has made Mike a popular and dedicated friend to all who have had contact with him. His love for our Lord is evident after a first meeting with him. Through the years Mike has made it a point to continually give of himself to bolster the morale of his fellow Christians.

Ruth Ann Shepherd was the female representative of the Senior Class this year as Miss Patriot. She is a Pre-Med major from Frankfort, Kentucky. Ruth Ann has held many positions of leadership in the class as well as the student body. Her athletic abilities have helped lead the Patriot Women's Basketball team to many of their victories.

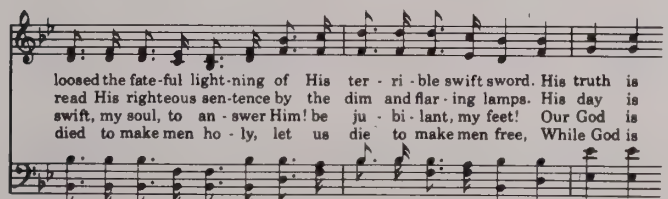

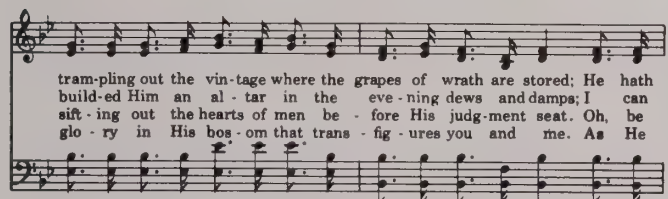

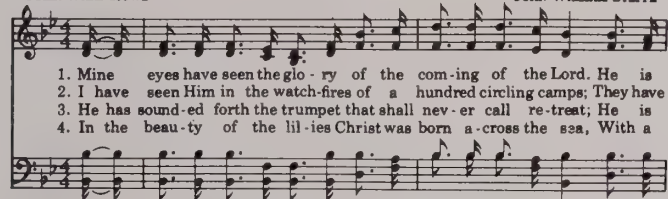

Ruth has shown that academic excellence can be maintained even through extracurricular activities by living a disciplined life academically, socially, and spiritually. Regardless of how busy she was, Ruth Ann always had time to hear what her classmates had to say and help in anyway she could.

Mr & Miss PANTHER

Like the sophomore class, the junior class this year chose their class president, Tim Allen, as Mr. Panther. Tim has earned a position of respect on our campus since transferring to Asbury in his sophomore year. He has shown his versatility as an actor, an athlete, and a leader. Tim is definitely proud to be a Panther and shows his support and dedication at every class function. As a pre-med major, Tim is kept busy academically but still finds time for his varied extra-curricular activities while maintaining his academic excellence. Tim's deep love for our Lord is evident after only a brief discussion with him. The Panther class can be proud of their selection of Tim Allen as Mr. Panther 1973-1974.

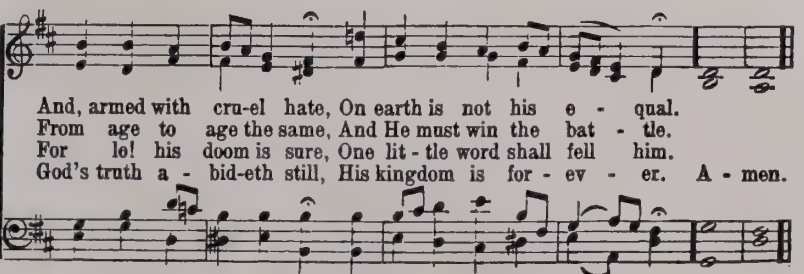

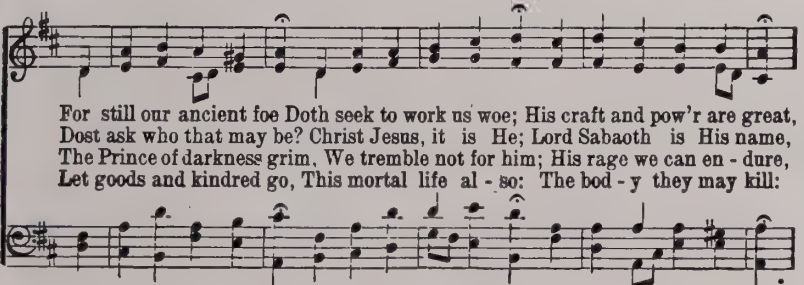

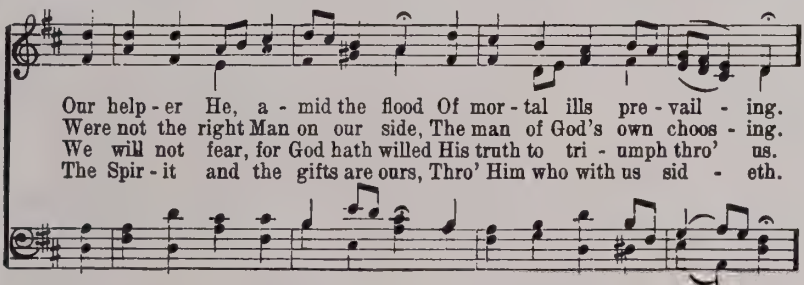

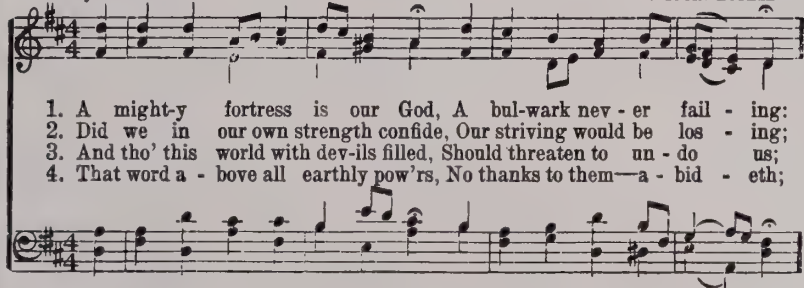

Gail Sawyer was chosen by the junior class as Miss Panther for 1973-1974. As secretary of her class, Gail has proven herself to be a responsible young lady. A warm smile and an open heart have helped to make Gail a blessing to all who come into contact with her. Through her daily walk with Christ, Gail has shown that a Christian can only afford to give his very best to a lost world because nothing else will do. To those who are less fortunate than she, Gail has been a beacon of sunlight and joy. In giving of herself to others Gail has shown that Christians are well rewarded in many ways for their acts of kindness to those around them.

MARTIN LUTHER

"But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life."

Jude 1:20-21 (KJV)

The end is in sight. We have prayerfully and finally chosen, and now our minds are challenged to dedication. Our studies now center around our interests and we are anxious to get out into the world and put our knowledge into action.

Mr. Pioneer

The Pioneer class chose their President, Rick Masters, as Mr. Pioneer for this year. Rick's leadership abilities and trustworthiness helped set him apart as a Pioneer of distinction. His friendliness and good nature have made him a true friend to his classmates as we as the rest of the student body, faculty, and administration.

Debbie Amstutz served as Miss Pioneer for this year. Due to her position as a cafeteria checker Debbie has had much contact with a majority of the student body and is known for greeting everyone with a kind word and a warm smile. Her class dedication makes her a respected Pioneer.

NATIONAL HYMN. 10, 10, 10, 10

George W. Warren, 1892

Trumpets, before each verse.

1. God of our fa-thers, whose al-might-y hand
2. Thy love di-vine hath led us in the past,
3. From war's a-larms, from dead-ly pes-ti-lence,
4. Re-fresh Thy peo-ple on their toil-some way,

Leads forth in bean-ty all the star-ry band
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thy strong arm our ev-er sure de-fense;
Lead us from night to nev-er-end-ing day;

Of shin-ing worlds in
Be Thou our Rul-er,
Thy true re-lig-ion Fill all our lives with

splen-dor thru the skies, Guardian, Guide and Stay,
in our hearts in-crease,
love and grace di-vine,

Our grate-ful songs be-fore Thy throne a-rise.
Thy word our law, Thy paths our cho-sen way.
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.
And glo-ry, land and praise be ev-er Thine.

The very first Mr. Viking was Nate Mowery. Nate showed his many talents and good nature as the singing master of ceremonies for the Freshmen Talent Show. His calmness and precision earned for him the respect of the entire campus. Off-stage Nate seemed very quiet but witty. Once a person had the privilege of getting to know him, Nate proved to be a friend of distinction. Nate Mowery has shown himself to be a well rounded student and Christian, an outstanding young person who well deserved the honor of being chosen Mr. Viking 1974.

Crystal Phillips was chosen Miss Viking for 1973-1974. Her friendliness and loving nature helped make her the female Viking of the year. The relationships Crystal has established with her fellow students have earned the admiration of the entire Asbury family. As an employee in the cafeteria, Crystal has won the hearts of everyone she serves because of the Christian love she exhibits to all.

A man had seven sons, who were always quarreling. They left their studies and work, to quarrel among themselves. Some bad men were looking forward to the death of their father, to cheat them out of their property, by making them quarrel about it. The good man, one day, called his sons around him. He said, "I will pay a hundred dollars to the one who can break this bundle." Each one strained every nerve to break the bundle." After a long, but vain trial, they all said that it could not be done. "And yet," said the father, "nothing is easier." He then untied the bundle, and broke the sticks, one by one, with perfect ease. "Ah!" said his sons, "it is easy enough to do it so; anybody could do it in that way." Their father replied, "As it is with these sticks, so it is with you my sons. So long as you hold fast together, you will prosper, and none can injure you. But if the bond of union is broken, it will happen to you as to these sticks, which lie here, broken, on the ground." Home, city, country, all are prosperous found, when by the powerful link of union bound.

A Beginning, an End, a Beginning Again . . .

Having made known unto us the mystery of His will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; and even in Him."

And It Is

Have I learned to love better than the plans of our fathers? Have I that is all, the same thing, and that that is divisions among us,
 that we are not together
 in the same way
 as in the same way
 as in the same way

Little, the best of them, seems to be the word of the hour. God's children are not to be found in the same way as in the world, it is difficult to see what is going on and it is difficult to see what is going on
 and it is difficult to see what is going on
 and it is difficult to see what is going on
 and it is difficult to see what is going on
 and it is difficult to see what is going on and we are not the same

 as we are not the same
 as we are not the same
 as we are not the same
 as we are not the same
 as we are not the same
 as we are not the same

 Grown
 a Bit Closer, Learned
 a Bit More About Being

 and Functioning Member of the Body of Christ.

Reaching In;
Reaching Out.

And So We Shall Continue to Grow Together in Him
Even As We Part . . .

 We Are All

 Moving
 in the Same

 Ever Closer
 to Our Source, Ever Becoming

We can all join the same organization and say we are "one," but we're not. We're like marbles in a jar, bumping together and calling it unity. But we're still individual egos and when the meeting is over we bounce apart to go our separate ways.

Unity is not marbles. It is grapes. Crushed together until all the skins of ego are broken and the juice forms a new wine. In this kind of unity we are all one. It was this process that took place in the upper room when they were all together in one accord in one place. No wonder the Holy Spirit fell with such power. Unity means that a grape must be willing to be dropped into a jar of marbles. The outcome, of course, if presupposed. The marbles will crush the grape (crucifixion). However, in the process all marbles get covered with grape juice. My greatest fear is not that I will be crushed; rather, it is that I might be a grain of wheat that falls into the ground and refuses to die.

"Truly, Truly
I Say to You, Unless
a Grain of Wheat
Falls
Into the Earth and Dies
It Remains
Alone —
but,
If It Dies,
It Bears
Much Fruit."

John 12:24

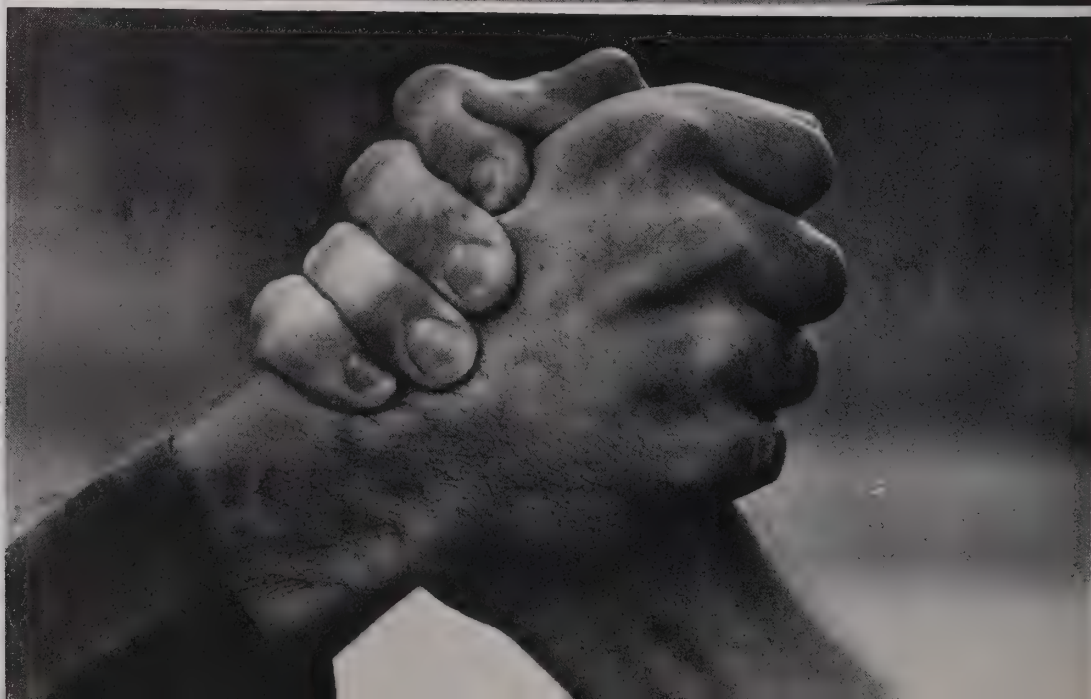

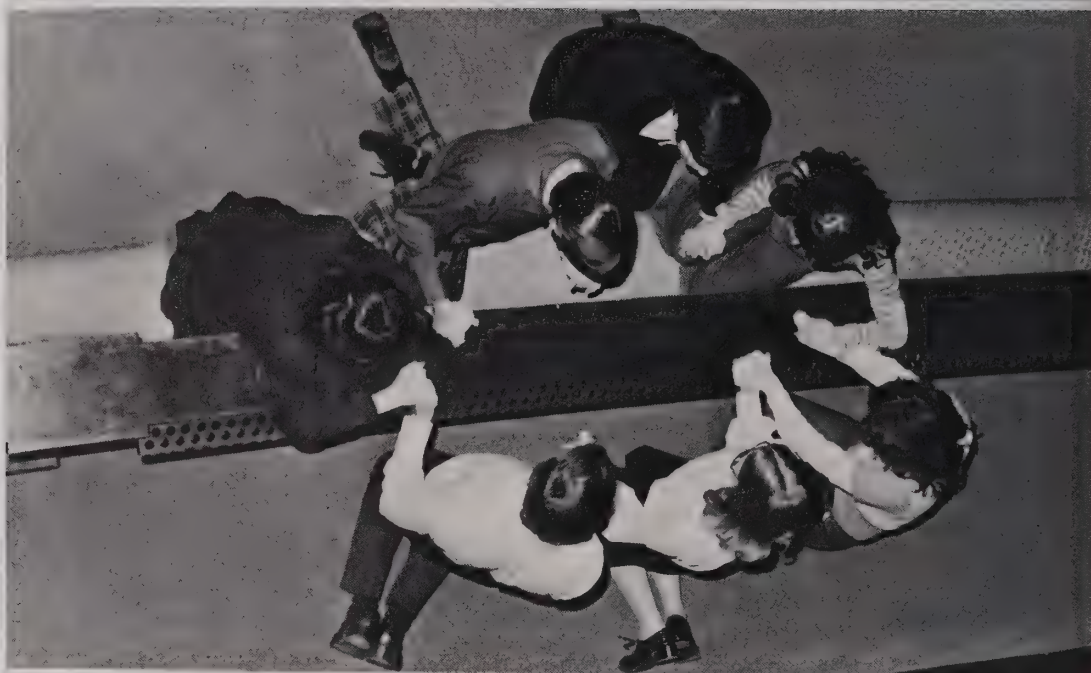

So Now
We Go Forth,
Not
to Remain Alone,
but
to Follow,
to Serve,
to Share,
to Be Willing to Give Our Lives to Bear
Much Fruit!

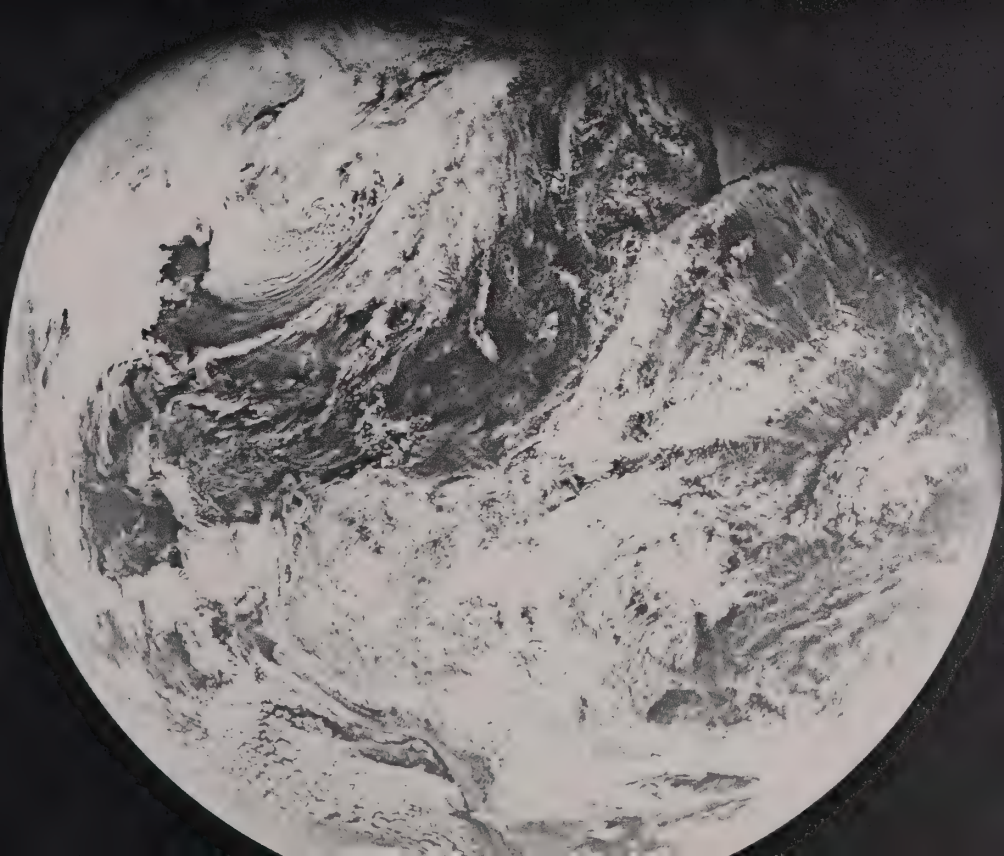

THE GOSPEL OF

Which Is Shed

Through It All . . .

This has been a year of growth for us. We have seen God take impossible situations and transform them into glowing testimonies of his power. From its very beginning, we turned the 1974 ASBURIAN and every phase of its production over to our Lord, and at times when we became so tied up in our work that we forgot just whose work it was, He came in and changed OUR plans to lead us and show us what pleased HIM. Now we look back and see that His way was surely always the best way.

Through it all by the simple power of His love toward us and His guidance, He drew us each closer to Him, and by so doing brought the staff into a beautiful unity in Him. Over and over again we have witnessed first hand just how powerful such unity can be. Throughout the year, through our circumstances, we have been continually shown that truly our choice of "The Power of Unity" as the theme of the 1974 ASBURIAN was His choice, to capture the essence of the powerful work which He had from the start intended to do among us. To hear everyone speaking of unity and then to look around and see it unfolding and enveloping all the members of our college family and reaching out from there in love and concern has been an awesome and thrilling experience. To know that you entrusted to us the responsibility of capturing that unity — this year — in these pages has been even more awesome. We are so very thankful to those who lifted us up in their prayers . . . to all who dropped into the office to help with layouts or typing or words of encouragement . . . to those who did not have to do anything, but did . . . We thank God for your faithfulness. The faculty and administration have always been genuinely concerned, open and ready to help, and to you we are most grateful. Four people who deserve special recognition are our parents, Mr. & Mrs. Glenn Spencer, Sr. and Mr. & Mrs. William M. Matthews. They turned their homes into our temporary offices and were always behinds us to give us an encouraging word. Our love and appreciation will be with them always.

It would be wrong to say that every moment was one of happiness because many a time our plans just did not work out the way we wanted them to. But through it all we have grown closer, stronger, more certain of and excited about God's working on this campus, in our own individual lives, and in His world. We are grateful for the opportunity you have given us to edit your 1974 ASBURIAN. It is His book and your book, for without each of you and your support there would be no book at all. In putting it together we felt God's touch many times, and it is our earnest prayer that in looking through the ASBURIAN, He touched you with memories of the 1974 academic year and the power of unity.

In Appreciation

It is with a warm heart and many tender memories that the 1974 Asburian staff looks back on this past year. The Lord sent us so many wonderful people to make our year a true learning experience. It is to these people that we express our deepest gratitude.

We have found Mr. Arthur J. Bedford, our portrait photographer a delightful man and a privilege to work with. He always was ready to help us whenever we asked. This dedication made our work a lot easier. Mr. Larry Bracken, our campus photographer, provided us with a selection of pictures that enabled us to pick only the very best.

Mr. Ken Miller our representative to the American Yearbook Company took a deep and active interest in us and our book by giving us his time on weekends as well as the evenings. This year has afforded us the privilege to see our administration and faculty in a different light. Dr. Moulton, Dr. Keysor, Dr. Ray, and their secretaries were always ready to listen, and help in any way that they could.

We want to thank the Student Body as a whole for their love and prayers and most of all for just being yourselves and allowing us to capture you just as you are.

preaching—the kind you are either for or against as with Jesus. The Lord used me to draw me closer to Himself. . . I strongly believe He was God's man for the hour here in Wilmore.

" . . . I was amazed at the way people sat and listened. . . That was a gracious response to the Presence of His Spirit and an inward challenge and greater desire to really worship and pray."

" . . . He has straightened out my priorities." . . . He has shown me the possibility of living on a 'higher plain' . . ."

" . . . only He can be . . . I have lived seeing Him, and . . ."

" . . . through the power of God I was able to . . ."

This statement was taken from the front page of THE ASBURY COLLEGIAN as taken from the Local Targ One in K. Leonard Ravenhill, well-known British evangelist, was this year's speaker for the revival held in the United Methodist Church last week. In addition, he spoke at the regular chapel.

ASBURY BITS

ence b
Collegian could think of no better way to cope with a challenge, not only individual but the whole college.

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF ASBURY COLLEGE □ WILMORE, KY

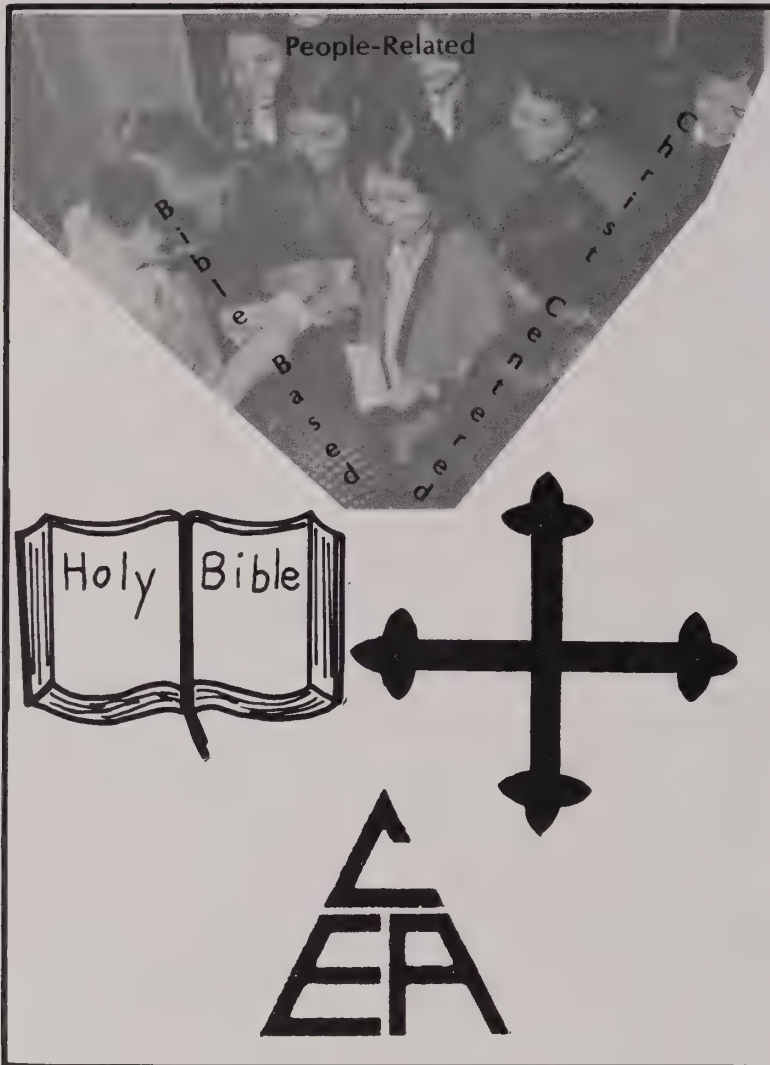

When asked how this revival compared to the one in 1970, Ravenhill remarked, "This was a different spectrum. In 1970 there was no proclamation without any proclamation, but here there was proclamation, but no proclamation. . . Once again this shows the total ability of the personal Holy Spirit."

Truly God has moved in our nation. . . .

to put Him first.

P A T R I O T S

The Patriot Class was truly blessed of God with the selection of Professor and Mrs. Robert Howard as our class sponsors. Their example as a Christian family has been an inspiration to all of us and their home has always been open to us and any problem we might have had, regardless of whether or not it concerned a class function. We have greatly appreciated their love, concern, and support for each of us as individuals and as a total class, and as each of us part and go our separate ways, we leave a part of ourselves with them and gratefully take a portion of them with us.
